MONTANA WRITING PROJECT TAKING APPLICATIONS FOR 1992 SUMMER INSTITUTE AT UM

MISSOULA --

The Montana Writing Project is accepting applications for its 1992 Summer Institute, to be held June 15-July 10 at The University of Montana.

The project is for educators committed to improving the teaching of writing at all levels and in all subjects. The application deadline is March 15, 1992.

During the four-week institute, educators learn writing strategies, take part in workshops and use microcomputers. At the end of the program, the participants are qualified teacher-consultants of writing. They can share what they've learned by organizing writing workshops, developing curricula and assessing students' writing skills.

The fee for the institute is $800, usually paid by the educators' school districts.

To receive an application, more information or a video about the project, contact Professor Beverly Chin, director, Montana Writing Project, Department of English, The University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812; 243-5231.
